UV versus AKS

MAR versus USV

ALL TEAMS are giving it all at the MIND-POINT of the CHAMPIONSHIP

UB versus BAS

The third competition day was a perfect image of the female teams' willingness to qualify for the next round. With the same system of matches divided into two sessions, the first one at 10:00 and the second one at 12:00, there weren't any remarkable incidents.

At 10:00 the University of Valencia (Spain) played against Aksaray University (Turkey) at the Fernando Argüelles, with a final victory of 31-21 for the Spanish team, with Rocío Rojas Asensio, from the University of Valencia, being the top scorer of the match with 10 goals.

At the same time, at the CTA, the University of Oslo (Norway) played against German Sport University Cologne. The Germans once again showed their confidence and superiority to end up with the score 15-24, with Karoline Engmann, from the University of Oslo, as the top scorer of the match (6 goals). With this victory, the German team leads Group B.

In the second session at 12:00, the University of Primorska (Poland) played against Ovidius University of Constanța (Romania) at the Fernando Argüelles. All along this match, a hard and direct game prevailed, which made the Romanian team win 32-44. Lea Krajnc, from the University of Primorska, was the top scorer of the match with 16 goals.

Finally, at the CTA, it was the turn of Akdeniz University (Turkey) against the University of Aveiro (Portugal), another chance for the Portuguese players to lead their team to a final victory with the score 25-31, with Mariana Lopes (University of Aveiro) being the top scorer of the match with 9 goals.

MAR versus USV

The late afternoon and evening was devoted to the male category. At 17:00 the first matches were Marmara University (Turkey) against Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava (Romania) at the Fernando Argüelles venue, and the University of Barcelona (Spain) against the University of Basel (Switzerland) at the CTA. In the first match, the Romanian team pulled off an overwhelming victory against the Turkish team with a final score of 24-36. The Romanian player Stefan Adrian Tirzioru was the top scorer of the match with 10 goals. In the second match, the University of Basel beat the University of Barcelona with a final score of 32-36, with Ferrán Cisneros López being the top scorer with 10 goals.

The 19:00 session started with two intense matches between the University of Rzeszów (Poland) and the University of Minho (Portugal), at the Fernando Argüelles, and the University of Montpellier (France) against Goethe University Frankfurt (Germany) at the CTA. The first match ended with the victory of University of Rzeszów (UR) with a score of 35-33, with Diego Branquinho, from University of Minho, being the top scorer of the match with 12 goals. With a score of 27-24, the second match meant the victory of University of Montpellier (UM). Thomas Gomez (UM) was the top scorer of the match with 6 goals.

The female quarter finals will take place on July 6th at 10:00 and 12:00 at the Fernando Argüelles venue. The male category will continue later on the same day at 16:00, 18:00 and 20:00 at Fernando Argüelles and the CTA.

Mr. José Ángel Narváez

Chancellor of the UMA

During the Opening Ceremony of the Championship, the Chancellor of the University of Malaga, Mr José Ángel Narváez, delivered a speech addressed to all the teams. With his characteristic friendly tone, Mr Narváez is one of the most approachable chancellors to the university community with one of the most active sports policies in the region. Being in charge of the University of Malaga, Mr. Narváez not only highlights the importance of sport in education, but he also promotes a common space for all the different university teams in Europe to play together in the sporting spirit of fair play.

In the Opening Ceremony, Mr. Narváez emphasized the idea of his institution being open to all the universities, highlighting the international nature of the University of Malaga, with sport, research and transfer of knowledge being its hallmark.
