The morning session resulted in a DRAW and two really close victories

DSHS versus AKS

Mariana Lopez, Portuguese player about to score

UJO versus RU

AKS versus UMA

The second day of the female category started with the first draw of the Championship between the teams of the University of Oslo (Norway) and the Radboud University Nijmegen (Netherlands). The match at the Fernando Argüelles ended with the score 25-25. The top scorer of this match, which started at 10:00, was Loes Vandewal, from the University of Oslo, who scored 12 goals.

At the same time at the CTA, the German team from the University of Cologne played against the Turkish team from the Akdeniz University. In this match, the German strength contributed to their superiority all along the game until a final score of 38-26 for the German team. The top scorer of the match was Maja Klingenberg, scoring 7 goals for her team.

The second round of matches, which started at 12:00, was also divided into a really even match and another one with a bigger point difference. At the CTA, the Portuguese team from the University of Aveiro played against the Romanian team, represented by the Ovidius University of Constanta.

This match had a very close score that ended with only one point difference, 22-21 for University of Aveiro, where the Portuguese player Mariana Lopes was the top scorer with 10 goals.

Finally, the match with the biggest point difference took place at the Fernando Argüelles. The Turkish team from Akdeniz University played again the host team, the University of Malaga. Despite the intense effort from the Malaga players to surpass the Turkish superiority, the match ended with the score 26-18, with three outstanding players regarding the number of goals (5 each): Fetane Uzunlar and Berfin Yayli from Akdeniz University and Marta Campos for the Spanish team.

An intense evening for the MALE TEAMS

The evening of the second competition day offered wonderful images of the matches. In total, four matches were played, one less than the rest of the days. The first sessions took place at 17:00 and the second ones at 19:00 at the Fernando Argüelles and the CTA, respectively.

At the CTA the team Stefan cel Mare University of Suceava (Romania) played against the German team from the University of Duisburg-Essen. The players of the German Sport University Cologne female team were cheering them the same way they had previously done in the morning, which helped them reach their final victory with a score of 17-22 for the University of Duisburg-Essen.

At the same time, at the Fernando Argüelles venue, the team of the University of Basel (Switzerland) played against the team of the University of Porto (Portugal).

The strength of the Portuguese players, who didn't leave their opponents any breathing room, led them to their final victory 25-31.

The top scorers of this match were Marco Rickenbacher, from the University of Basel, and Miguel Mota dos Santos Cortinhas, from the University of Porto, with 8 goals each.

Immediately after, at the same venue, it was the turn of another Portuguese team.

The University of Minho played against the University of Malaga, who showed their superiority from the very beginning, leading to a comfortable victory. The final score was 19-35 for the University of Malaga, with Ignacio Soto being the top scorer of the match (7 goals).

Finally, the CTA hosted the match between Goethe University Frankfurt and the University of Split. Despite the insistence of the Croatian team in pursuit of the goal, the Germans showed their characteristic undaunted strength. The match ended up with the score 25-17, with Jonas Ulshöfer, from Goethe University Frankfurt, as the top scorer with 8 goals.

Starring

Mr. KEMAL TAMER
Vice-president of the EUSA Executive Committee

Mr Kemal Tamer is the highest EUSA authority in this Championship, thus, he is also the Chairman of the Championship's Supervision, Control and Arbitration Commission (SCAC).

Born in Turkey, it is his first time here in Malaga and specifically in Antequera, which makes him look forward to visiting the city after the Championship, as he thinks "it must be really beautiful". Despite his role as constant supervisor of the Championship, he wants to enjoy the event as well as visit everything the city has to offer. He already knows some Spanish cities such as Cordoba, Granada, Vigo and Valencia, and still keeps some wonderful memories of those visits.

Regarding this Championship, his main tasks so far have been overseeing the accreditation process and checking the accreditation and situation of every participant, as well as supervising the work of the OC in the organization of the Opening Ceremony.

Amid a pile of documents, he expresses his wish for this one to be an excellent Championship, about which he highlights the importance of having 10 female and 12 male teams, which is really positive with regards to the promotion of university sport.
